

Modalverben Ersatzformen

1. Ersetze must und needn't mit der entsprechenden Ersatzform: have to bzw. don't have to.

- You must be more careful. _____
- You needn't do all the exercises. _____
- Jenny must go to school today. _____
- He needn't clean up his room just yet. _____
- My Dad must fix the roof. _____
- I needn't prepare the food today. _____
- Harry must wash his car. It's super dirty. _____
- We needn't hurry. There is still plenty of time. _____

2. Setze die Ersatzformen in den Lückentext um die Sätze sinnvoll zu ergänzen:
were allowed to, weren't allowed to, didn't have to, was able to, had to, have to
will be able to, wasn't able to

- I _____ study for the exam tomorrow.
- I _____ to meet my friends yesterday because of the exam, too.
- We _____ to go out either. Mom is really strict.
- We _____ to watch a little TV, though.
- Additionally we _____ to do any other homework.
- So I _____ to finish my handicraft project.
- However we _____ to bed early.
- I hope we _____ to go back to normal after the exam.

3. Setze Ersatzformen to be allowed to, to be able to, to be supposed to, have to für die Modalverben may, can, should, must in die Lücken. Achte auf die richtige Zeitform. Verneine gegebenenfalls.

- We _____ (may) to bring a dog to school ever.
- We _____ (may) to bring a calculator, though.
- You _____ (should) clean up your room today. Otherwise Mom will be angry.
- You _____ (should) do your homework yesterday. Now it's too late.
- He just _____ (can) do it right. He doesn't have the skills.
- Ask his sister. She _____ (can) to do it tomorrow.
- You _____ (must) mow the lawn if you don't want to.
- You _____ (must) repair your bicycle next week, however.
- Leroy _____ (should) to enter the data into the computer last week. Why didn't he do it? So he _____ (must) to do it tomorrow.
- We _____ (may) to eat all the hamburgers at the party yesterday.
- However we _____ (must) to eat only salad for the coming weeks.

<https://english-munich.de/training>